

NEW BTOY SOLO SHOW «IDENTITY»

PRESS RELEASE / 7TH OCTOBER 2014

After Djerbahood this summer, Itinerrance Gallery returns to Paris for 2014-2015 season which promises to be colorful! To begin this new series of exhibitions, "femininity" is honored by the artist Btoy (Spain).

Already known on the parisian artistic scene (Tour Paris 13, In Situ ...), she has painted a serie of women portraits in which emotions are strongly expressed. Their looks are insistently staring at us or some times they are staring an empty point which are making a strong impression on the public. In this exhibition, the artist speaks of being, of what unites us and what makes us different, what we want to have and what is missing us. These heroes of yesterday and today has being questioned the very construction of the woman's image in time and what is the feminine identity.

Pioneer of the stencil in Spain, practicing her art for almost fifteen years, Btoy has become an essential figure of the Street Art movement. She has exhibited at galleries in Barcelona, London, Paris and Bérgamo; and she has participated in many live shows as «The Cans Festival», in London. She exhibited «Cleopatra» at Bundeskunsthalle, in Bonn and «Tour 13» in Paris. www.flickr.com/btoy
